

Action Plan according to the decisions of ICJPIC 2019 (Jerusalem Statement)

Name of the Conference: _____

Name of Entity Laudato Si'	Entity 1:	Entity 2:	Entity 3:	Entity 4:	Entity 5:	Entity 6:	Entity 7:
Renew our prophetic presence in today's world through a radical process of an individual and communal ecological conversion.
Adopt the methodology of active non-violence and just peace.
Collaborate in a more comprehensive way inside and outside the Church.
Engage with the Pax Christi International on its "Catholic Non-Violence" initiative.
Integrate Laudato Si' in liturgy and put it into practice.
Promote the knowledge of the encyclical through retreats and study circles.
Commemorate the environmental martyrs.
Collect, create and share the relevant resources (homiletic, catechetical, practical).
Use creatively multimedia and social networks to promote Laudato Si' .

Name of Entity Climate Crisis	Entity 1:	Entity 2:	Entity 3:	Entity 4:	Entity 5:	Entity 6:	Entity 7:
Promote and celebrate the Season of Creation in liturgy and through actions of solidarity.
Collaborate with the Global Catholic Climate Movement .
Engage in the Divestment Movement from the dirty fossil fuel industry and reinvest in clean, renewable energy.
Participate in global and local mobilization efforts for climate justice.
Raise the awareness and deepen our understanding of the issues discussed in Laudato Si' .
Collect and share the stories of the best practices around ecological conversion.
Promote holistic alternatives to the culture of hyper-consumption.
Partner with civil society, government authorities and social entrepreneurs to advocate for climate justice.
Plant trees.

Name of Entity Socio – Environmental Crisis	Entity 1:	Entity 2:	Entity 3:	Entity 4:	Entity 5:	Entity 6:	Entity 7:
Oppose the throwaway culture of irresponsible consumption.
Show solidarity and advocate in support of the victims of extractivism.
Join the “ Right to Say No ” campaign.
Adopt strategies for product boycotts.
Divest from the corporations involved in the environmental/human rights abuses and reinvest in sustainable projects.
Collaborate with Franciscans International & Thematic Social Forum on Extractivism .
Encourage Entities of the Order to work with NGOs on the issue.
Engage with schools of business, proposing alternate economic models that support corporate social responsibility, ecological conversion and climate justice.

Name of Entity	Entity 1:	Entity 2:	Entity 3:	Entity 4:	Entity 5:	Entity 6:	Entity 7:
Migration Crisis
Help create a culture of hospitality and common humanity by accepting, welcoming, and caring for migrants as our brothers and sisters.
Open our homes to welcome, listen to and dialogue with migrants.
Celebrate World Days of Refugees and Migrants , and Prayer against Human Trafficking .
Volunteer at existing migrant centers.
Promote field experience at migration centers for friars in the Initial and Ongoing Formation.
Organize immersion camps for the youth and friars.
Promote campaigns to overcome prejudice against migrants.
Engage in Franciscan Network on Migration in America.
Disseminate legal tools for migrants

- (1) Please enter the name of the Conference and all the Entities in it.
- (2) Please mark the actions to be carried out for each Entity among the above decisions of ICJPIC 2019. (✓ or ✗)
- (3) Please submit it to the JPIC Office in Rome by October 31.